

By the Numbers:

Book Operations

Books a year kept in circulation and out of landfill

Volunteers working hard throughout the city in our two used book stores, book donation center and book sales each year

Hours these volunteers put in on average every year

Books sold at antiquarian collector and specialty book fairs each year

Days a week both our bookstores are open throughout the year

Attendance at our two annual sales each year at Fort Mason Center

Number of local organizations, schools, community centers, museums and businesses we partner with throughout the year

Total book sales at our two stores, annual sales, specialty sales and online sales last year

Online sales collected in 2013, compared to $25,000 in 2001
