ACCLAIMED POETRY SERIES MOVES TO NORTH BEACH

Beginning September 6, 2016
North Beach Branch Library
6:30 PM // FREE

FREE POETRY IN LITERARY EPICENTER OF SAN FRANCISCO

Thursdays at Readers has been Friends' highly-respected weekly poetry series celebrating internationally acclaimed poets and showcasing local talent for the past 8 years. Past guests have included Jonathan Richman, David Meltzer, Diane di Prima, California Poet Laureate Al Young and freshly-discovered poets from sister program Poets 11. The series is curated by Friends' Poet-in-Residence, Jack Hirschman. Beginning on Tuesday, September 6th, 2016, the weekly poetry series is relocating from Readers Bookstore Fort Mason to the beautiful new North Beach Branch Library.

Tuesdays at North Beach will take place in the historic literary epicenter of San Francisco, in a beautiful new branch library Friends helped fund. As always: the event is free, open to the public and occurs weekly at 6:30 p.m.

For a complete schedule, including a line-up of poets, please visit: www.friendssfpl.org.

ABOUT FRIENDS

Friends' mission is to strengthen, support and advocate for a premier urban public library system in San Francisco. We do this by raising funds, working with partners and volunteers to provide critical support for the Library, and promoting literary engagement throughout the Bay Area.
